

More Options:

Show URL

Search > Search Results > David, Sandler

Content Language

Hebrew ▼

Main Linked Items < Previous Next

Item ID	62037
Full Name	David, Sandler
Father's Name	Gutel ⋮
Mother's Name	Deborah ⋮
Gender	male ⋮
Country of Birth	South Africa ⋮
City of Birth	McGregor, Cape Province ⋮
Date of Birth	02/03/1910
Military Service	South Africa ⋮

Death Details	Passed away
Date of Death	22/10/1977
Place of Death	Cape Town, South Africa
Category	Armies/Fighters
Enlist Reason	Volunteering
Old Item No.	35843

Close

Biography

David Sandler (2 March 1910 Mc Gregor, Cape Province, South Africa- 22 October 1977 Cape Town, South Africa) was the son of Gutel Sandler (1880-1944) and Deborah Sandler born Gladstone (1861-1932) of Robertson. He was schooled at Boys' High School, Robertson.

During World War Two he was a member of the Montagu National Reserve Volunteers (N.R.V.).

He married Rachel Minnie Lipschitz in 1939 and they had two children. He was an attorney in Montague and Director of Montague Brick Co.(Pty) Ltd. He subsequently moved to Cape Town.

Sources:

1. South African Jewry 1967-68 Edition. A Survey of the Jewish Community; Its Contributions to South Africa; Directory of Communal Institutions; and a Who's Who of Leading Personalities Feldberg Leon (Editor) Sandler David page 402.
2. The South African Jewish Database Jewish Migration and Genealogy.
3. <https://www.geni.com/people/David-Sandler/6000000001881081315?through=6000000001881296433>.

Personal Story

During World War Two he was a member of the Montagu National Reserve Volunteers (N.R.V.).