

My AccountAccessibilityQuick SearchBasic SearchAdvanced SearchNew Warrior PageRussianעבריתMore Options:Show URLSearch > Search Results > Esther, Canard

Content Language

Hebrew

MainLinked ItemsPrevious Next

Item ID	66604
Full Name	Esther, Canard
Previous Last Name	Buirski
Father's Name	Jacob
Mother's Name	Annie
Gender	female
Country of Birth	South Africa
City of Birth	Robertson
Date of Birth	23/09/1899

Military Service	South Africa	⋮	📄
Death Details	Passed away	⋮	📄
Date of Death	23/04/1996
Place of Death	De Doorns, Cape Province, South Africa	⋮	📄
Category	Women	⋮	📄
Category	Armies/Fighters	⋮	📄
Enlist Reason	Volunteering	⋮	📄
Old Item No.	36255	⋮	📄

Close

Biography

Esther Canard (23 September 1899 Roberson, Cape Province, South Africa - 23 April 1996 De Doorns, Cape Province, South Africa) was the daughter of Jacob Buirski (1864-1942) and Annie Buirski born Millin (1869-1903). She was educated at Robertson Girls High School and Huguenot University College, Wellington. She married Dr Alfred Canard (1899-1949) on the 23 December 1930 and they lived in De Doorns, Cape Province. She was involved in Jewish affairs in Worcester and De Doorns During World War Two she served as Adjutant of the Women Auxiliary service, De Doorns.

Source

1. South African Jewry 1976-77 Edition. A Survey of the Jewish Community; Its Contributions to South Africa; Directory of Communal Institutions; and a Who's Who of Leading Personalities Feldberg Leon (Editor) Canard Esther page 149.
2. <https://www.myheritage.com/research/record-1-179569452-4-507289/esther-canard-born-buirski-in-myheritage-family-trees>.

Personal Story

During World War Two she served as Adjutant of the Women Auxiliary service, De Doorns.